Two Term Law Affecting Officers of Catholic Knights of America.

Transfer of Sinking Fund Will Increase Former Rate For Old Men.

The Next National Convention at Nashville Three Years Hence.

LEGISLATION FOR UNIFORM RANK

The national convention of the Catholic Knights of America, which was in session all last week at Cincinnati, held its final session and adjourned Saturday morning, with the best of feeling prevailing. Much time was devoted to the discussion of the many proposed changes in the laws governing the body, but few of which were adopted. The election of officers resulted in the unanimous choice of Dr. Felix Gaudin, of New Orleans, for President; Hubert F. Croghan, of Providence, for Vice President; and Anthony Matre, of St. Louis, for Secretary. Charles Hannauer, of St. Louis, was chosen to succeed Joseph Carroll as Treasurer, and Adam Jaeger, of Chicago, was re-elected Supreme Trustee.

The constitution was changed making the national conventions an occurrence every three years instead of biennial as heretofore, and Nashville was chosen as the city for the next national meeting. The Catholic Knights will continue their representation in the American Federation of Catholic Societies, and Edward Kennedy and Joseph Berning were chosen as delegates.

A change in the laws that will affect to quite an extent the assessment rate paid by the old men since the last revising will be caused by the transfer of nearly $50,000 from the sinking fund to the widow and orphan fund. The interest from the fund was being used to meet the increased rate for those who created the fund, but will hereafter have to bear the added burden. It was contended, however, that this plan would be taken, since the order would be shared from doing business in a number of States where there is a large membership. The Kentucky delegates, Messrs. Thomas Gleason and Michael Reichert, made every effort to have the changed law not go into effect until next January, but without avail. They carried out to the letter the instructions and expressed wishes of the Kentucky State Council, but were in the minority upon the more important and far reaching changes.

Favorable legislation was enacted regarding the Uniform Rank, which will hereafter stand as an auxiliary to the Catholic Knights. Hereafter the Uniform Rank will be a self-governing body, but at any semi-annual meeting the Executive Board shall receive and act upon the reports submitted to the Supreme Council by the Major General. It was also decided that any supreme officer holding any office, position or appointment other than the one he is elected for by the Supreme Council, shall not be entitled to receive any compensation for any services rendered in the order, other than the salary attached to the office to which he was elected.

For the extension of the order and increase of membership the following provision was made: "On and after July 1, 1907, the territory of the United States shall be divided for the purpose of organization into districts, whose area shall be as nearly equal as possible in reference to the Catholic population, and each such district shall be placed under the sole control of a district Supreme Officer, who shall be appointed by the Supreme Trustees or a majority thereof, and whose duty it shall be to visit every branch of the order in his respective district, to organize new branches wherever possible, assist all established branches in strengthening their membership, and to perform all the duties usually devolving upon an official organizer. Each such organizer shall be subject at all times to the direction of the Supreme Trustees. The compensation of each such organizer shall be appointed shall be $1,500 per annum, with an allowance for expenses of not exceeding $150 per month."

Before adjourning the convention adopted resolutions of condolence for the Shriners who lost their lives returning from California, and resolutions of thanks to Archbishop Moeller, Mayor Dempsey and the local Knights were also adopted.

While much of the business was transacted in executive session the convention seemed satisfied with the work done, and it is thought the continuance in office of the last administration will result in great benefit. The officers have shown good judgment and have plotted the organization through a most threatening crisis, which was largely responsible for their re-election.

SHORT SESSION.

The County Board met at Liederkranz Hall, in Division 4's meeting room, and being desirous of giving them early possession, President McGinn ordered that only important business be transacted. John Deely was administered the obligation of the order, and the Visiting Committee reported that there was no one on the sick list. Short talks full of encouragement and advice were made by State President Butler, County President Murphy, State Treasurer Tolson, Sol Cain, F. J. Mack and Owen Keiran, after which the meeting was resolved into a session of the County Board.

CHURCH WAS FILLED

When Funeral of Judge John McCann Took Place Wednesday.

With all the solemnity and impressiveness of the Catholic church the funeral of Judge John McCann took place Wednesday morning from St. Louis Bertrand's. Rev. Father Logan was the celebrant of the high mass of requiem, assisted by Rev. Father Flood and Rev. Father Clarke, while within the sanctuary were the Rev. Fathers Patrick Walsh and Charles P. Raffo and a number of Dominican priests. Seldom if ever was there witnessed as large a funeral in this city, the large edifice being filled to overflowing with persons from all stations of life who came to pay the last tribute of respect to a just and honored citizen. The active pall-bearers were Messrs. Joseph Toke, Sol Cain, Frank Dugan, Frank McGrath, Edward Nichter, Mike Tynan and William Smith, those acting as honorary being Charles F. Graininger, John H. Whalen, James P. Edwards, James P. Whalen, Aaron Kohn, Harry Brennan, Scott Newman and William Bear, all of whom had been named by Judge McCann before his death. The funeral cortege extended from the house to the church and when the casket was placed before the altar it rested amid a veritable bower of flowers. Floral designs of all sizes and descriptions occupied all the available space about the sanctuary, presenting a striking sight. After the solemn services ended Rev. Father Logan said Judge McCann had requested that no sermon be preached over his remains and that the sorrowing family shed in the requiem, but he did not feel he could do his full duty without saying a few words concerning the sincere and earnest preparation the Judge had made for the journey into eternity. Deceased had realized some time ago that his end was nearing, and therefore sought and received the sacraments of his holy religion. Thus fortified he passed away, leaving legions of friends who will mourn his loss for many years to come.

SPLENDID WELCOME.

Ladies Delighted With Entertainment Given Them by Division 3.

The entertainment and reception given on Thursday night of last week in honor of the Ladies' Auxiliary by Division 3, A. O. H., was a most delightful affair and was highly appreciated by the large audience present. President James Coleman welcomed the guests in a most happy talk, after which followed an interesting series of moving pictures under the direction of Tom Dolan, in which appeared those of Miss Mary Sheridan and others prominent in the order. Pleasant solos were rendered by Misses Julia Kelly, Elizabeth Kling and Maggie Hourigan, who each received a hearty encore. Ex-President Patrick T. Sullivan said it was always a pleasure to welcome and address visitors at a meeting of Division 3, but before so many ladies he was almost overcome and at a loss what to say. Attorney Tom Walsh made one of his characteristic talks and made a number of allusions that evoked much laughter. Miss Mary Sheridan responded for the Ladies' Auxiliary and expressed thanks for the great courtesy shown them by their hosts. She said Division 3 always furnished a good time for visitors, and in conclusion said that while the ladies were not securing as many members as they desired they would double their membership before the convention.

State President Butler spoke for the order, saying these pleasant meetings were to be held regularly, and urged all to a united effort for the coming State and national conventions, hoping that Louisville would make an especially good showing. After Thomas Keenan and William M. Higgins had spoken an abundance of light refreshments were served.

READY FOR ALL COMERS.

The Kentucky Irish Americans are the latest addition to the ranks of the amateur bull players, and thus far this season have been very successful, not having lost a game. They will play a double header tomorrow afternoon with the Louisville Juniors and the Bloomers. The K. I. A.'s present a very formidable line up and before the season is over will make all of the local Americans hush. They will play any team whose players are under eighteen years of age. Games may be arranged by telephoning Capt. Joe Higgins, Home phone 5602.

PROUD OF PRIZE.

Little Nellie McIlhenny is the proudest child in the Cathedral parish. The bright little miss is the daughter of James McIlhenny, and her happiness was caused by her being awarded the first prize offered for the communion and confirmation class at the Cathedral.

REJECTED.

Ireland Against the Birrell Bill and Still For Home Rule.

Three Thousand Delegates Assemble in Harmonious Convention in Dublin.

The Proposed Irish Council Bill Declared to Be Utterly Inadequate.

JOHN REDMOND OCCUPIED THE CHAIR

The largest, most representative and most harmonious convention that ever assembled in Ireland, on Tuesday repudiated the plan for a limited Irish Council, which was all the Liberal Government had to offer in fulfillment of its campaign promises. This action killed the hope of any home rule legislation by the present Parliament, created a serious split in the Government's forces and may have far-reaching results. The temper of the convention was plain from the beginning. No one had a word to offer in behalf of the bill. Home rule or nothing was the unanimous sentiment, and the resolution rejecting the measure proposed by John E. Redmond commanded every vote. The Irish Parliamentarians had been deluged with resolutions from town councils and all sorts of official and unofficial bodies since they arrived in Dublin, all denouncing the bill. The country spoke in an unmistakable voice and the Irish members of Parliament cheerfully acquiesced in its will.

Three thousand delegates came to Dublin to attend the convention at the Mansion House were opened it was impossible to get into the building, which was packed most uncomfortably. The gathering was quieter than most Irish Parliament meetings. It lacked the spirit of the old home rule gatherings, when the speakers were fiery orators and the center of the stage. The speeches were temperate, there was little denunciation of the Government and everything went smoothly. The American delegates were greeted enthusiastically. The keynote of the convention and of several resolutions introduced was that the bill was an insult to Ireland.

John Redmond, who presided, was greeted with great cheering when he rose to speak. His first words were: "The heart of every Irishman in the world goes to John Dillon in the hour of his great affliction." A resolution of sympathy with Dillon in the loss of his wife was adopted, as was another for the widow of Michael Davitt, who died since the last convention and according to the Irish people was a great loss to the Irish people.

Telegrams of greeting from many Irish societies in America and elsewhere were read, after which Redmond reminded the delegates of the Irish people's attitude toward the bill, which was a resolution of sympathy with Dillon in the loss of his wife was adopted, as was another for the widow of Michael Davitt, who died since the last convention and according to the Irish people was a great loss to the Irish people.

Resolved, That this convention, representative of Irish national opinion, respectfully appeals to the Government to bring peace and contentment to our people but a measure of safe government which will give the Irish people complete control of their domestic affairs.

That while we have never wavered in our belief that it is impossible to produce any logical or workable scheme for responsibility in Ireland, short of the concession of home rule in accordance with resolution of the national directors of February 5, 1907, and with the published declarations made from time to time on our behalf, we have been willing to give fair consideration to any scheme prepared by the British Ministers which in their opinion would be consistent with and up to the danger policy to which they were pledged.

That having considered the Irish Council bill introduced by the Government, we declare that it is utterly inadequate in its scope and should be rejected by the Irish nation, and we regard the provision of such a measure by a British Government pledged to home rule as a confirmation of the position that we have always taken that any attempt to settle the Irish problems by half measures would be entirely unsuccessful, and we call upon the Irish people to oppose the bill in the House of Commons and press upon the Government with all their strength and power to introduce a measure for the establishment of a native Parliament with a responsible executive power over all purely Irish affairs, and at this crisis in the fortunes of Ireland we invite all the Nationalist forces of the country to unite in support of our representatives in Parliament and enable them effectively to press for the speedy and genuine settlement of the Irish question.

Parliament was not committed to any part of the bill or to the Government. They had voted for its introduction in order to fulfill their promises and so that the Government's proposals might be submitted to a convention. Summarizing his views, Redmond asserted that the Birrell bill was not workable and therefore would end in disgrace and disaster; its failure would be used as an argument against Ireland's capacity for self-government and its operation would result in the demoralization of the Nationalist party and the existing unity, which was Ireland's strongest weapon.

After Mr. Redmond had concluded his remarks speeches seconding the resolution were made. A. J. Kettle, a veteran home ruler, was the first speaker, after which John O'Callaghan, of the American branch of the Irish League, aroused the enthusiasm of the delegates.

"Do you think," he asked, "that the task of Mr. Bryce in America is going to be made any easier because his colleagues have thrown in the face of the Irish people this measure, which you today will throw in the face of his colleagues with contempt?" Continuing, Mr. O'Callaghan, amid great applause, assured the delegates that so long as England gives the Boers, who fought her (cries of "yes" heard), more home rule than the Irish, the Irish-Americans will prevent the alliance with the United States which England so greatly desires.

During the delivery of the last few speeches the delegates were clamoring for a vote on the resolution.

There was a tremendous chorus of "yeses" and when he asked for those who were opposed to its passage there was no response. Then the convention rose, cheered heartily, and the delegates streamed from the hall.

AMERICAN COLLEGE

May Be Placed in a Building That Will Surpass Its Rivals.

A project attributed to Mr. Thomas Kennedy, of Philadelphia, the Rector of the American College in Rome, is to build a new establishment which shall surpass all its rivals of other nationalities, and collect over 225 students yearly. Mr. Kennedy would like to choose one of the most beautiful spots in Rome for the college building and to provide it with all the comforts and modern requirements, such as baths, heating, playgrounds, gymnasiums, etc., which are so lacking in similar institutions in the Eternal City. As the college could not possibly be in the center of the town, special conveyances would have to be provided to take the students to it, but for this special permission would have to be asked from the Vatican, which is a difficult task. The project is being considered by the popularity Mr. Kennedy enjoys at the Apostolic Palace.

RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Tully took place yesterday morning from St. Patrick's church, at 9 o'clock, with a requiem mass for the repose of her soul. Deceased was the widow of Patrick Tully, a former well known Irish resident.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Piper, widow of the late James L. Piper, a well known member of the printing fraternity, died Tuesday at noon after a long suffering illness. Deceased leaves one daughter, Miss Carrie Piper, one brother, John J. Piper, and one sister, Mrs. Martha Furlong. The funeral took place from Mr. Piper's residence, 1415 Seventh street, Thursday afternoon, and the interment was in Cave Hill cemetery.

John F. Beatty, thirty-six years old and well and favorably known, fell a victim to heart disease on Monday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Beatty, 318½ East College street. The blow falls heavily upon the aged mother, following so close upon the death of her husband, the late Patrick Beatty. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at St. Mary Magdalen's, Rev. Father Gauseph being the celebrant of the mass of requiem.

John Keenehan, for ten years a faithful member of the fire department, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Keenehan, 609 West Broadway. For eighteen months the deceased had been complaining but stuck to his post until six weeks ago. The news of his death was received with expression of sincere regret, as no man in the department was more widely known or better liked. The funeral took place Thursday morning from the Cathedral, firemen from his own company and the department acting as pall-bearers and escorting the body to the grave.

CLOSING MISSION.

The mission conducted by the Jesuit fathers, Boorman and Leary, of Chicago, at St. Mary Magdalen's church on Brook street, and largely attended at all the services during the week, will close with the services to be held Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, when the Papal blessing will be bestowed. This mission has been one of the most successful ever held here, the results being most gratifying to the pious and zealous pastor, Rev. Father William Gauseph. Fathers Boorman and Leary are eloquent orators and convincing instructors, on which the proposed council could be founded. The Irish members of

MUCH GOOD

Will Result From Visit of Supreme President Dennis Kelley.

Brings Words of Encouragement to the Catholic Knights and Ladies.

Hearty Greeting For the Supreme Officers Last Sunday Night.

ORDER HAS MOST HIGH MOTIVES

The past week has been a most important one for the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America of the three Falls Cities. The visit of Supreme President Dennis Kelley and Secretary Henry Hayes is certain to be productive of good results, as they brought words of encouragement and inspired confidence and enthusiasm wherever they appeared. The meeting at St. Martin's Hall on Sunday night was much larger than the Advisory board had looked for, many being unable to gain admission to the auditorium.

Rev. Father Ohle, pastor of St. Martin's church, in the opening address, expressed himself pleased with the assembly, which he welcomed as a Catholic priest. The Holy Father, he said, appreciated the necessity for and the great good Catholic societies like the Catholic Knights and Ladies are doing. This society was not only assisting in the material welfare, in sickness and death, providing for the widow and orphan, but looked after in a measure their spiritual welfare.

Many are saved from falling by the constitutional requirement, which gave the order the highest motive, the saving of souls. It was with regret that he announced the inability of Rev. Father Ohle to be present. The musical and literary programme was a long one, but each number was well rendered. Thomas D. Cline created much laughter by his splendid recitation and was warmly applauded, as was also Katie Carr. The violin and piano solo of Misses Mary and Margaret Dalton was well received and the vocal solos of David Maloney, Mrs. A. Barrett and Thomas Keenan, Jr., evoked hearty applause. A splendid set of stereoscopic views were presented, which included pictures of President Kelley, Father Raffo, Thomas Keenan and other workers in the order.

Hon. Edward J. McDermott in introducing President Kelley said it was always a pleasure to be with the Knights and Ladies of America. He referred in complimentary terms to Miss Mary Sheridan and the other officers, who were actuated by the most lofty purposes and should be given respect and support. When President Kelley stepped forward he was greeted with long continued applause. His delivery was easy and graceful and no better address on the subject of Catholic fraternal insurance was ever heard in this city. President Kelley spoke on the principal and necessity of insurance, and there is no doubt but that the impression made on many will bring new life into the order. Though Louisville was the birthplace of the Catholic Knights and Ladies, the audience was more than he anticipated. The fact that the local branches have the approval of the clergy speaks well for the members, who were urged to always be a sure and safe church working society. He was proud to be able to say that everywhere the clergy were taking a sincere and earnest interest in the order and giving it encouragement. The speaker pointed out the duty of parents and young men and women for whom great sacrifices had been made, making a strong plea to them to realize the responsibilities resting upon them. During the past two years Catholic Knights and Ladies had made wonderful progress, their assets increasing over 300 per cent., a record that no other financial institution can approach. In concluding he offered timely advice to the Louisville branches and then issued forty applications for membership.

The Mooney twins captivated the audience with their song and dance and were made to respond to the encore. Other numbers that pleased were rendered by Misses Margaret Gibbons, Mary Ernst, Rosa and Marie Stoehr, Nellie Joeman, Frances Clever and the Rosebud Trio. Miss Mary Sheridan's appearance was the signal for another outburst of applause, but as the hour was late she only bowed her acknowledgments, when with the moving pictures closed a most satisfactory entertainment.

Monday night President Kelley and Secretary Hayes addressed a big meeting in Frankfort, and another in Jeffersonville on Tuesday night, when they were accompanied by Miss Mary Sheridan and Tom Keenan. Here they found the branch in good condition with a remarkably low death rate.

New Albany was visited Wednesday night and here another big time had been arranged for. The Supreme officers were welcomed by Father Griffin and Mrs. Richards at a large meeting, and after a number of addresses refreshments were served. This was the last meeting held and was as successful as any of the series. President Kelley and Secretary

THEY MADE GOOD.

Mackin Council Choral Club Scores Musical Hit of Season.

The most interesting memento connected with the many musical entertainments this city has witnessed was the artistic and highly successful presentation of Anlyn Kanston's two-act comic opera, "The Dreamers," by the Mackin Council Choral Club to audiences that filled the Mary Anderson Theater on Monday and Tuesday nights. Certain it is that the young ladies and gentlemen who appeared in "The Dreamers" scored the hit of the season, and the compliments bestowed on every side were well deserved. The verdict of the daily press was that while the organization purported to be an amateur company they could easily have been mistaken for professionals, making a reputation that ought to entitle some of the members at least to adopt the stage permanently. The music was tuneful and was well directed by its composer, Prof. Vincent Falisi. Each and every one in the big cast had a true conception of their part, and where all did so well it would be unjust to particularize. The large, handsomely costumed and well trained chorus, consisting of Misses Jeanette Dannenhof, Rose Gaas, Lillian Gies, Mary Clements, Anna Diehl, Ella Giffnaue, Maud Herbst, Bertha Heuser, Lela Maurer, Irene Moser, Louise Sigman, Blanche Kerr, Mae McClure, Mattie Sayer, Mildred Schwellers, and Messrs. Tom Duddy, Tom Flitburn, John Kenney, James Mullarkey, Tom O'Connell, Will O'Toole, Leslie Quinker, Bernard Recktenwald and Fred Zahn, was exceptionally fine.

Little Leota Whitten Hierach, as the messenger boy, made a tremendous hit, as did also Misses Eugene Cunningham, Esther Whelan, Mattie Hoffman and Bertha Heuser and Messrs. Kanston, Thomas Cline, George Welsh, Tom Shireliff, Louis Kieffer, Joseph Kling, Adolphus Andrius, who assumed the leading roles, and were compelled to respond to encore after encore. The plot was a pleasing one and abounded with original and laugh-producing hits and situations that gave all opportunity for a display of talent. The performance reflects credit upon all who had any part and won the hearty commendation of the large audiences, who were unanimous in saying that what Mackin does she does well.

STATE COUNCIL.

Knights of Columbus Hold Meeting Here and Elect Officers.

The State Council of the Knights of Columbus was held in this city last week at Elks' Hall, with a full representation from all of the councils in Kentucky present. The council was presided over by James J. Fitzgerald, State Deputy. In his report he stated that the general membership of the order now consisted of 58,000 insurance members and 121,400 associate members; that each of the councils in the State had held initiations during the past year, increasing their respective membership very substantially, and that five cities in the State were about organizing councils, among them Louisville, Bowling Green and Paris, showing that the order was largely on the increase in this State, as well as all over the United States.

A resolution was introduced, and unanimously passed, requesting the delegates to the next National Council to use such laws as they would afford the associate membership in different basis of representation than that which now prevails. Under the head of election of officers, James J. Fitzgerald, the well known attorney of this city, was re-elected as State Deputy; George A. Burkley as State Secretary, and L. B. Clements, an attorney of Owensboro, was elected State Advocate, and George Welke, of Cornington, as Warden. J. Donovan, of Paducah, was elected as first alternate and J. S. Rogers, of Lexington, as second alternate. The meeting was addressed by the State Chaplain and by others of the delegates present, and adjourned to meet in Louisville, Ky., May 14, 1908. James J. Fitzgerald and R. A. Watson will represent Kentucky at the next national convention.

KNIGHTS NIGHT.

Branch 6 of the Catholic Knights of America is arranging for a big night for its members, the Central Committee and the other branches of the city at St. Martin's Hall on Wednesday, June 5. Charles Falk and a committee have the affair in charge, and promise a smoker, social session and entertainment that will delight everybody. Supreme Delegate Reichert will report the proceedings of the National convention, and all Knights are extended a cordial invitation to attend and participate in the festivities.

ST. PHILIP NERI'S.

The church event for tomorrow will be in honor of St. Philip Neri, which will be appropriately observed at the church of that name on Woodbine street, of which Rev. Father Ackerman is the pastor.

READY.

Catholic Knights Will Visit St. Anthony's Church on June 2.

The Roman Knights and Uniform Rank Will Act as Escort.

Father Leo to Celebrate Solemn Vespers and Father Rock Preach.

ALL BRANCHES WILL TURN OUT

The Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America have everything almost in readiness for the annual parade and church visitation, which has been set for Sunday afternoon, June 2. At the meeting held last Friday night and presided over by Chairman McGinn all business excepting that relating to the celebration was suspended. Thomas Feely and Charles Hill reported that they had seen the Rev. Father Leo Greulich, of St. Anthony's, who assured the Knights a cordial welcome to his church.

Upon motion it was decided that all the branches and the Uniform Rank meet with the Central Committee at St. Mary's Hall at 1:30 o'clock on Sunday, June 2. Escorted by the Roman Knights the column will move at 2 o'clock, proceeding in Eighth street to Market and thence down to Twenty-third and Market to St. Anthony's, where all will attend solemn vespers. The Roman Knights will have their band and the Catholic Knights' band recently organized will accompany the Central Committee and branches.

Messrs. Joe McGinn, Louis Steinert and Charles Hill were instructed to visit Col. Poppo and the Roman Knights and extend them a special invitation to participate as they did last year, when their showing was so creditable. In this connection an invitation to the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration and prize drill of St. George Commandery, to be held in Jeffersonville on Sunday, June 3, was received and accepted.

The Central Committee voted to furnish postal cards to the Secretaries of the branches, who will send them out to their members, and the clergy will be requested to announce the members and parade in their respective churches. Special invitations were also ordered sent Rev. Father Bax, the State Spiritual Director, and the pastors of the city. Committees were named to secure an escort of police and carriages and also to arrange for refreshments in the evening, when the Central Committee will entertain all who unite in the parade.

Stirring remarks were made by Charles Hill, John Fackler, Thomas Dignan and John Schalla, who promised that the members and parade in the evening, when the Central Committee will entertain all who unite in the parade.

Charles Falk stated that he had been instructed to ask the Central Committee to ask the meeting of Branch 6 at St. Martin's Hall on Wednesday, June 5, when a complimentary smoker and reception will be given the Catholic Knights of Louisville. The committee voted to be present and then adjourned for another week, when the various committees will make their final report. This year the Knights of Louisville could endeavor to make as good a public showing as possible, and at least 1,000 men ought to be in line. It is in this manner they will make known their membership and inspire confidence in the order, which is now doing so much good and striving to bring the young Catholic men and women within their ranks. Every member should feel it his duty to turn out on this occasion. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. F. M. J. Rock, of the Cathedral, who was the first priest to join the Catholic Knights of America and is looked upon as one of the founders.

LOUISVILLE HANDICAP

The Feature on Today's Fine Card at Churchill Downs.

The racing at Churchill Downs continues to be of the high order and some of the best thoroughbreds that Kentucky can boast of are eared to start in the Louisville Handicap today. Inclement weather has had no noticeable effect upon the attendance, and the management feels that their efforts to provide clean, first class and true-to-form racing for the public has been appreciated. For the coming week the Juvenile stakes, Louisville Steeplechase and Gentlemen's Cup races present a card that should attract thousands to the old historic course. This afternoon the Louisville Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, will be the feature, and should bring out one of the best fields that has yet faced the starter. The other five events are well filled and promise a day of exciting sport.

ALL KNOCKED OUT.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals in a sweeping decision rendered Wednesday declares that no election was held in this city two years ago, thereby throwing out almost every Democratic office-holder in Louisville. Because of the vacancies thus created the court holds that the Governor has the appointing power and must therefore name the Mayor, City Judge, Prosecutor, Aldermen, Board of Council and County Judge. It places the appointment of the Sheriff, Jailor, County Clerk, Assessor, Coroner, Surveyor and Attorney in the hands of the County Judge named by the Governor. It places the appointment of the City Auditor, City Attorney, Boards of Public Safety and Public Works, Bailiff and other city offices in contest in the hands of the Mayor, following his appointment by the Governor. It places the appointment of the Clerk of the City Court in the hands of the Judge of the Police Court.

In concluding a lengthy review of the contest the court says: "If these undisputed facts do not establish the conspiracy charged, then we are at a loss to know how such a charge could be established. The conspiracy to steal the election in question is as plain as was the conspiracy charged in the Declaration of Independence against King and Council to rob the Colonies of their liberty. After setting forth the reasons against a people changing their forms of government for light and transient causes, it is said in that noble instrument: 'But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty to throw off such government and to provide new guards for their future security.' As there, so here. A long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to deprive the people of Louisville of their right to elect their own officers, and it is now our duty to overthrow this design, and to declare the safeguards necessary for the future security of the rights of the people."

MUST BE SHOWN.

Now that the local Democratic party is compelled to again nominate a ticket for the November election on account of the decision of the Court of Appeals declaring that the last municipal election was fraudulent, it is certainly up to the party here to place a ticket before the voters that is a class one from top to bottom. There can be no denial of the fact that several office-holders under the present regime are certainly a handicap to any ticket, and along this line we also want to say that there are deputies and appointees under this administration who, if their appointment depended upon the choice of the people, would never have the ghost of a show, but they have always been smooth and diplomatic enough to attach themselves to some popular candidate who has the selection of several deputies.

At present the entire matter of selecting candidates is in a chaotic state, but we hope that the local Democratic committee in selecting their candidates will also compel them to submit their lists of deputies and assistants, thereby giving the committee a chance to weed out some of the class who by their actions have made themselves obnoxious to not only the entire public but to the party voters that devoted their best energies in placing them there. If this is done there can be no doubt of a clean victory and big majority for the entire ticket.

IT IS TO LAUGH.

Once upon a time P. T. Barnum, the showman, said that "the American people love to be humbugged," and the Associated Press continually uses that expression for its motto. This past week they sent broadcast through the country a column dispatch purporting to come from France telling how 3,000 priests of the Catholic church in that country had united in a petition to the Pope requesting that they be permitted to take unto themselves a better half, and the story went on to say that there were over 60,000 more waiting to be married. On the whole it is to laugh, but it is our understanding that our leading daily journals should be willing to print such trash.

WILL DROP BILL.

The latest news from London relating to the Irish bill introduced by Secretary Burrell and rejected by the Nationalist convention at Dublin, is that the Government will drop it for this session at least and proceed with the other reforms which its Liberal supporters are urging and with which the sessional programme is crowded. It is thus seen that the predictions that England would not keep her promise are about to be verified.

DOWNFALL

Predicted For Clemenceau and the Enemies of the Church.

The words spoken by the Pope to the Bishop of Wilmington, Del., reveal the exact position of the Vatican regarding the trouble with France. The Pope said:

"I believe that Clemenceau, the French Premier, is already sorry for what he has done against the Vatican, and that sooner or later we shall see his downfall."

Mus X is of a deeply religious nature and is not one to believe that the Almighty will permit any one fighting the Church to carry on his work for more than a limited period of time. This persuasion of the Pope explains the present situation, the most extraordinary in church history. It accounts for the inactivity of the Vatican authorities in the face of the dangers threatening the Church in France and also for the success of the French Government in carrying out the laws separating Church and State.

Nobody in Vatican circles believes those laws are lasting. Tradition is against them. A treaty, signed over a century ago by representatives of the Holy See and the French Government, seemed to prove a sufficient hindrance to the carrying out of the new law, and because of this the Vatican authorities only made a weak opposition to the anti-clerical schemes of the French officials. As a matter of fact, the separation law was passed before the Vatican authorities realized its import, and then the astounding claim was made that the Pope would refuse to accept it. Then came the inventories of the churches in France. The seizure of episcopal residences and presbyteries, the appropriation of the churches by the State and municipalities and other measures.

KNIGHT WHO IS ALSO MUSICIAN.

The well known organization known as Chevalier Enrico Gargiulo's Concert Band will give two weeks' concerts at the White City, commencing tomorrow afternoon. The music lovers of our city, as Chevalier Gargiulo has attained a position in the musical world which many envy, having been knighted at an early age by the Dowager Queen of Italy for his pre-eminent musical talent. Gargiulo does not attempt any of the confections that have become characteristic among his fellow band leaders; on the contrary, he is opposed to the sensational methods, being a true musician in every respect and having complete control over his musicians, which is not always witnessed under the baton of the practitioners of that high art. The band numbers forty-five musicians, including ten soloists and two singers, whose voices are powerful, with an abundance of quality and tone which is pleasing to the musical ear. Any one having an ear for music is sure to appreciate the efforts of Gargiulo's Band, and should not fail to attend the concerts of this superb organization while they remain in Louisville. It should also be remembered that another such organization will not be heard here again this season.

CONFIRMATIONS.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock our Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey will confirm a class at St. Michael's church on Brook street. The class is a good one for that parish and is a credit to the pastor, Rev. Father Martin O'Connor, who has been zealous and successful since assuming charge of that parish.

Bishop McCloskey will also administer the sacrament of confirmation to many young people at St. Patrick's church at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Since the first of the year Vicar General Cronin and the Sisters of St. Patrick's parochial school have been preparing an unusually large class of children, and the day is looked forward to with great interest in that great parish.

MACKIN COUNCIL.

Mackin Council did not meet Tuesday night, the meeting having been adjourned to Friday night on account of the opera. The reports submitted last night indicated that the council will realize nearly $1,000 from its operatic production at the Mary Anderson Theater.

CIGARMAKERS.

At a special meeting of the Cigarmakers Union held Wednesday night an amendment was made to the new scale of prices whereby an agreement has been reached with the largest manufacturer in the city, and it is thought all the others will now sign and that the men out will return to work next week.

POPE PLANS COUP.

May Form Party Modeled After That in the German Reichstag.

Press reports from Rome say the Pope has taken another bold step in Italian political matters, a step which will perhaps result in the forming of a Catholic Center party in the Italian Parliament, modeled after the one in the German Reichstag. Many Italian representatives in Parliament who are known to be in sympathy with Catholic ideals have been semi-officially notified that the Pope would receive them at the Vatican for a private conference before the end of the present month, and nearly all of those who were told of the fact, although much surprised, gave their promise to be present.

It is considered that such action is of tremendous importance to Italy, in that it will increase the number of Catholic representatives in the Italian Parliament, even if some of them have been elected on issues other than religious. Since the election of June 3, five members of Parliament have been elected on purely religious issues, and the action taken by the Pope forecasts the time when a Catholic majority will rule the Italian Legislative Assembly, and there will be no longer any danger that laws objected to by the Church authorities shall even be submitted to the consideration of the chambers.

FONTAINE FERRY POPULAR.

Fontaine Ferry Park's attractions are proving strong drawing cards in spite of the fact that much of the time since the opening of the season the weather has not been of a character to make people seek relief under shade trees. The devices are so numerous and the entire park so inviting that it is not difficult to find entertainment, regardless of the temperature. The Royal Hawaiian Serenaders, who have scored such a hit in the free band concerts this week, have been re-engaged, and Henry Cook and his excellent band of thirty pieces continue to grow in favor with the park patrons.

Probably as strong a vaudeville bill as has ever been presented at a local theater will be the attraction offered by Hopkins' Pavilion for the week commencing tomorrow afternoon. Not less than four of the acts booked were worthy of featuring on any programme, and plenty of things to excite laughter will be found in the bill.

ENJOYABLE EVENING.

An entertainment that gives much promise will be given Monday evening at St. Anthony's Hall, Twenty-third and Market, by the pupils of St. George's school, for which a very interesting programme of exercises has been arranged. The school year has been a very successful one, both as to attendance and in the progress made by the children, and reflects much credit on Father Weiss and the Sisters who have been their teachers. A most enjoyable evening is assured those who attend.

AGED PRIEST DEAD.

Rev. Walter Hill, the noted Jesuit scholar and author and for over thirty years a teacher in the St. Louis University, is dead at the age of eighty-five. His funeral took place Monday and was attended by clergymen from all parts of the West and South. Father Hill had a number of relatives in this city, among them John Hill and Mr. Columbus Mattingly, brother and sister, and Rev. John Hill, of the Cathedral.

REPRESENTED LOUISVILLE.

Thomas J. Scally, the well known musician and band leader, has been spending the week in Cleveland, where he is the Louisville delegate to the twelfth annual convention of the American Federation of Musicians. Tom has had his honor there, and is one of the most influential delegates in the convention, having been placed on the most important committees.

CLUB BUILDING FUND.

Miss Blanche Mitchell and her pupils will give what promises to be a most enjoyable dancing entertainment for the benefit of the Catholic Woman's building fund at Macaulay's Theater on Friday night, May 31. Miss Mitchell has a large and well trained class, and the entertainments given under her direction have been the best seen in this city.

NUMBER 258 WINNER.

At the drawing held Wednesday for the handsome watch offered by the Catholic Woman's Club 258 was the lucky number. The watch was offered in connection with the recent performance of the Chesterfield minstrels, and the person holding the above numbered coupon can secure the prize by applying at the club house.

HAS BEEN VERY ILL.

Mr. W. J. Kinsella, of 731 Third street, and well known in Catholic and business circles, is at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, where he has been seriously ill. For many years he was manager of the Nugent dry goods store on Fourth street.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Royal Gorge Council, with sixty members, was recently instituted at Canon City, Col.

Five Boston councils have been conducting a bazaar since Monday at the club house in Dorchester.

Thursday night the Daughters of Isabella held a Japanese carnival at the Masonic Temple in Trenton, N. J.

The Hibernians at Boston are giving substantial support to the councils that have established the splendid club house at Dorchester.

The Knights of Superior, Wis., are organizing a base ball team with the intention of cleaning up their brethren on the other side of the bay at the annual game.

Reports from the different councils read at the Minnesota State Council at St. Paul last week showed the organization to be growing with marked rapidity.

Two hundred Knights from Minneapolis and St. Paul went by special train to Green Isle, where a new council was instituted that bids fair to reflect credit on the order in general.

Last Sunday Texas Knights organized and chartered a council, also, with about fifty members. The initiatory work was conducted by District Organizer Joseph O'Reilly and team from Austin, over 200 visitors participating.

Thomas St. John Gaffney, United States Consul at Dresden, was the recipient of an enthusiastic reception last week at the new club house of Amsterdam Council, New York City. Over 200 members and all past and present officers gathered to greet their distinguished brother member. With his wife he will sail June 11 for his post at Dresden.

Craigton, Neb., initiated and instituted Count Craigton Council with a class of seventy-five candidates. Delegations were present from the O'Neill, Columbus, Sioux City, Harrington and Omaha councils, also from the towns on the Bonesteel and Bloomfield lines. An elaborate banquet was given the members and guests in the Grand Army of the Republic Hall immediately after the degree work.

The formation of a State lecture bureau, to be made up of the State and district deputies, and the assessment of a per capita tax of fifty cents on the members of the order in Wisconsin to bear the expense of the same, was the most important business transacted at the State Council which convened at Janesville. The per capita tax will raise a fund of about $2,200 for the purpose.

New York instituted five new councils and increased the total membership to 38,649 during the past year.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Brown in some of the lighter shades is a conspicuous favorite. Half-sleeves of Valenciennes lace with plain or ruffled tops are convenient.

Little foulard silk handkerchiefs to knot into the turndown collar as a tie are new.

The thin muslins in Peking effects are used for skirt-waist frocks and for dressmaker coats as well.

Checks are still modish, but stripes have unquestionably come into their own, and in all materials stripes are favored.

Striped linens are worked into very smart coat and skirt tailor costumes and into the popular jumper or gumpie models.

Merecerized linens, or combinations of cotton and linen, are really handsome this season and make most attractive dresses for little girls.

Lace blouses are less popular than they have been in the past, the very handsome lingerie blouse having usurped many of their functions.

New linens are checked in various ways and make exceedingly practical as well as altogether charming and attractive dresses for the younger girls.

Tan or natural colored pongee, with lines of green forming a check, is being greatly used this season and makes exceedingly attractive costumes.

The lingerie blouse is to have another triumphant season, and wherever there is a blouse department there women throng in jostling crowds.

MUSICAL FOR WEDNESDAY.

Instead of the regular business meeting of the Louisville Council, Knights of Columbus, next Wednesday a musicale will be given under the auspices of the Entertainment Committee. Members are requested to bring their wives, sisters or lady friends, as the committee promise an interesting and pleasing programme.

TO VISIT BIRTHPLACE.

Frank Senn, of the firm of Senn & Ackerman, will sail for Germany next Monday from New York, to spend the summer in his old birthplace, from whence he came when but a poor young lad. Mr. Senn has lived in this city over fifty years and is one of our leading and most prosperous German Catholic citizens.

"QUICK MEAL" GAS RANGES

For many years the "Quick Meal" has been universally acknowledged as the best gas range in the market. They cook quickly, bake excellently and on account of their patent air burners consume less gas than any other. They are more easily cleaned and are made to last. The new improvements this year will keep it in the front rank. Having made our 1907 contract before the advance in prices of all iron goods we are able to sell at old prices.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

The Ballymote tenantry are negotiating for the sale of the town with their landlord, Sir Josslyn Gore Booth.

J. C. R. Lardner, of Monaghan, and J. T. Donovan, of Belfast, are mentioned as successors for Patrick O'Hare, who has resigned as member of Parliament.

Terms of sale have been arranged on the Mullon estate in County Meath and also for Lord Louth's estate, where arrangements are being made for reinstatement of the evicted.

The handsome new St. Mary's church at Drumlish was solemnly opened on Ascension Thursday. Bishop Hoare presided and the Very Rev. Father Skelly, O. P., of Sligo, preached the sermon.

Rev. Father Glynn, Carrigaholt, County Clare, declined at the meeting of the West Clare Executive of the United Irish League to act longer as President, to which his re-election was proposed, as he said outside of a few old campaigners nobody bothered about the league.

A report from Killarney states that three head of cattle impounded at Fries, and which had been seized for rent on the Kenmare estate, were forcibly rescued. It is stated that a man called on the pound keeper with an order signed by the agent for the release of a cow, and when the pound keeper opened the gate to release this animal some persons are said to have jumped over the wall and drove out the others, and so far they have not been traced.

For having assaulted Isaac Jones, a member of the Bray Urban District Council, a woman named Murphy was fined three shillings. Jones' case was that he went to collect rent from the woman, who was his tenant. She abused him, threw him out into the lane and threatened she would knock his brains out. Mrs. Murphy asserted that Jones remained about the house till she had to fling him out. Then he challenged her out into the lane to box him. She had also thrown him out before.

A very melancholy fatal accident occurred at Cabran, South, about five miles from Cahirciveen, by which a farmer named Shea lost his life. The poor fellow conveyed young men and women from his neighborhood who emigrated to America. He remained in town until evening, when he left for home, having his horse and cart in charge. Within a short distance of his house his horse and cart got capsized. He was thrown under the cart and killed. The deceased leaves a wife and three young children and an aged father to mourn his loss.

The body of James Cullen, a farmer, residing in Moaluna, near Newtownkennedy, County Wicklow, who has been missing for over a month, was found in a pond at Killinure. About five weeks ago Cullen came into Wicklow to pay his rent, having in his possession a sum of over $150. It is stated that in consequence of a misunderstanding with the agent, Frank Kennedy, Cullen left the office without paying the rent, and some time afterward left Wicklow for home. There was suspicion of foul play, but this was removed when his money was found intact.

Four of Lord Kenmare's bailiffs proceeded to Kilmaree, some eight miles from Killarney, and distrained two cows, the property of Patrick Riordan, for rent. It was stated that after the bailiffs had traveled about a mile they were attacked. During the fracas it is alleged Bailiff Quirk received a stroke of a pitchfork on the head, knocking him insensible for some minutes, while Bailiff Doyle was stabbed with a pike in the left arm. One of the bailiffs took out a revolver and fired several shots in the air. The bailiffs abandoned the seizure and reported the matter to the police.

The question of the breaking up of large grazing ranches has spread to King's county, and there was a sensational development in connection with an extensive tract at Roscommon, situated on the western slopes of the Silver Bloom mountains, about twelve miles from Birr, and eleven from Roscrea. It has been in the occupation of Nathaniel Luttrell, a prominent merchant in Roscrea, for the past sixteen years, and is, it is stated, a yearly tenancy as distinct from an eleven months' lease. Recently a large crowd cleared the farm of over 300 sheep, about thirty head of cattle and several horses that were driven to Luttrell's establishment at Roscrea.

Police and people of Roscommon came into conflict over the removal of stock off grass farms held under the eleven months' system. Early in the morning an immense crowd, with hands, assembled at Knockcroghery and cleared a farm belonging to a grazier named O'Brien at Cloonekert, and another held by a man named Mealy, of all stock. Police were present in force and made a baton charge on the crowd, but the latter were too numerous, and succeeded in driving off the cattle in spite of them. For some time past tenants have been negotiating for those farms, but the terms could not be arranged satisfactorily to the occupiers. A number of names were taken by the police, and prosecutions

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Middlesex county, Mass., will soon have a dozen divisions of the young cadets.

Now all will bend their energies to make the annual celebration on July 20 a fine success.

A fine division has just been organized at White River Junction, N. H., with forty names on the charter list.

Division 37 of Charlestown, Mass., is arranging for a bazar to be held in the new home recently purchased.

Division 4 of St. Paul last week initiated eighteen young men and received about as many applications.

State President Kenney, who is visiting all the Minnesota divisions, last week attended large meetings in St. Paul.

Miss Maggie Hourigan's rendition of "Jock the Pride of Killdare" at the social of Division 2 pleased everybody.

Division 4 did a courteous act Wednesday night when it adjourned its meeting in favor of the County Board.

Division 1 of Duluth has reports on so many candidates that a special meeting will be arranged for their initiation.

Seven hundred members of the four divisions at East Cambridge, Mass., received holy communion in a body at the Sacred Heart church.

In the Boston Common Council forty of the seventy-five members belong to our order. Seven of the thirteen Aldermen are also members.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of New Haven, Conn., will hold a rose party June 4. This auxiliary has promised $100 to St. Raphael's Hospital ambulance fund.

The Boston Highlands Hibernian Building Association have in view the magnificent building of the Catholic Sisters on Massachusetts avenue, which will be soon vacated.

None of the divisions meet next week. The first to meet will be the Ladies' Auxiliary on June 6, when they will tender a reception to the candidates to be initiated that night.

The ladies are yet talking about the nice time they had last week at the meeting of Division 3. Miss Mary Sheridan spoke for them all and her words were received with hearty approbation.

National President Cummings will be tendered a great reception by St. Paul Hibernians at the Auditorium on evening of June 2, following the laying of the cornerstone of the St. Paul Cathedral.

Division 3 is setting an example that others might well follow. The programme of exercises arranged each month proves not only interesting but instructive and serves to increase the attendance.

Minneapolis Hibernians are making extensive preparations for the coming of their National President, Matthew Cummings, of Boston, who will be their guest on the evening of June 3 and deliver an address in the Elks' Hall.

One of the largest class initiations to be held in some time will be given in Congress Hall, South Boston, on the afternoon and evening of June 9. The several divisions in the peninsula district are co-operating for this monster occasion.

Thomas Walsh, the attorney, always a favorite at Hibernian meetings, made his best hit last week when addressing the ladies at the meeting of Division 3. They were kept laughing from the beginning to the end, yet he offered some very timely suggestions.

An exchange asks why it is that the members of the A. O. H. are not showing more interest in the success of the Ladies' Auxiliary? Why don't they try to get their wives, daughters and sisters to join? If the matter was investigated it would be found that a large number of the members of the auxiliary are those who have no male relatives in the ranks of the A. O. H. On the other hand many ladies have been instrumental in having their male relatives become members of the A. O. H. Why can not the share in aiding the auxiliary to succeed? It is noticeable that when a division is holding a fair or an entertainment they want the ladies' assistance to make the event a success. Such being the case what kind of men are Hibernians who will not assist in the success of the auxiliary? Show us where there is a flourishing auxiliary and there you will find a successful division, if governed by the proper spirit of Hibernianism—unity, friendship and true Christian charity.

HELPING HIM ALONG. Edyth—Young Huggins called on me last evening, and what do you suppose he had the nerve to say? Mayne—Really, I don't know. Put me wise. Edyth—Why, he said he intended to kiss me when he left. Mayne—And did you call him down? Edyth—You bet I did. I told him the sooner he left the better I'd like it. "You had better not go boasting GALLANTRY. Lady (in a crowded car)—Thank you, sir, but I don't like to deprive you of a comfortable seat. Irishman (who had risen to offer a seat)—It was comfortable no longer when I saw you standing.

FIBER FOR LINEN. Lines of tomorrow will be Brazilian linen. The Brazilian linen plant is expected to exert an important influence upon the textile world in the near future. It is a common weed which reaches a height of eighteen feet in twelve months. When carefully cultivated it matures within three months, and can yield three crops in a year. The fiber has all the qualities necessary for high class use, strength, fineness, flexibility, and adaptability for bleaching, dyeing, etc. Every part of this plant can be used for some industrial purpose, especially for the manufacturing of writing paper. The cultivation was commenced by the State Government, and now is said to have emerged from the experimental state successfully. Its influence will be felt at once. The productions of the plantations have been contracted for by British interests at a highly remunerative rate. The production has been patented in the United States.

GIRL WE LIKE. She comes into the room like a sea breeze, laughing, nodding right and left with a happy impartiality. The "blues" fly out of the window when she comes in. They simply can't stand her sunny presence. She is ready for everything. She never throws cold water on your plans. She claps her hands and says they are splendid, and suggests a way to make them even more splendid, so sweetly and modestly that you think it is your own suggestion. Wherever she goes she is the funny side of things. And she has such a funny, whole-hearted way of describing them that it is as good to hear her as to have been there yourself.

THE CATHOLIC HOME. Christian women, when your husbands and sons return to you in the evening, after buffeting the waves of the world, let them find in your homes a haven of rest. Do not pour into the bleeding wounds of their hearts the gall of bitter words. But rather the oils of gladness and consolation. Be fond of your homes. Be attached to your homes. Make them comfortable. Let peace and order and tranquility and temperate words abound there.

POISONS. When poison has been accidentally swallowed no emetic is better than mustard. Mix three teaspoonfuls with cupful of warm water and swallow. At once the stimulative action upon the stomach causes that organ to reject all its contents, the poisonous ingredients with the rest. The emetic of mustard leaves no ill effect behind it, but instead a feeling of pleasant warmth and stimulus. It is one of the quickest of all emetics and the most harmless.

PROVOKING. "John," said Mrs. Stubb after supper, "I wish you would put this picture in a good position on the wall." "Oh, haug it!" blurted Stubb, who was reading up the base ball prospects for 1907.

Mrs. Stubb smiled sweetly. "How did you guess it, dear? That is just what I should have said in the first place—hang it."

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Middlesex county, Mass., will soon have a dozen divisions of the young cadets.

Now all will bend their energies to make the annual celebration on July 20 a fine success.

A fine division has just been organized at White River Junction, N. H., with forty names on the charter list.

Division 37 of Charlestown, Mass., is arranging for a bazar to be held in the new home recently purchased.

Division 4 of St. Paul last week initiated eighteen young men and received about as many applications.

State President Kenney, who is visiting all the Minnesota divisions, last week attended large meetings in St. Paul.

Miss Maggie Hourigan's rendition of "Jock the Pride of Killdare" at the social of Division 2 pleased everybody.

Division 4 did a courteous act Wednesday night when it adjourned its meeting in favor of the County Board.

Division 1 of Duluth has reports on so many candidates that a special meeting will be arranged for their initiation.

Seven hundred members of the four divisions at East Cambridge, Mass., received holy communion in a body at the Sacred Heart church.

In the Boston Common Council forty of the seventy-five members belong to our order. Seven of the thirteen Aldermen are also members.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of New Haven, Conn., will hold a rose party June 4. This auxiliary has promised $100 to St. Raphael's Hospital ambulance fund.

The Boston Highlands Hibernian Building Association have in view the magnificent building of the Catholic Sisters on Massachusetts avenue, which will be soon vacated.

None of the divisions meet next week. The first to meet will be the Ladies' Auxiliary on June 6, when they will tender a reception to the candidates to be initiated that night.

The ladies are yet talking about the nice time they had last week at the meeting of Division 3. Miss Mary Sheridan spoke for them all and her words were received with hearty approbation.

National President Cummings will be tendered a great reception by St. Paul Hibernians at the Auditorium on evening of June 2, following the laying of the cornerstone of the St. Paul Cathedral.

Division 3 is setting an example that others might well follow. The programme of exercises arranged each month proves not only interesting but instructive and serves to increase the attendance.

Minneapolis Hibernians are making extensive preparations for the coming of their National President, Matthew Cummings, of Boston, who will be their guest on the evening of June 3 and deliver an address in the Elks' Hall.

One of the largest class initiations to be held in some time will be given in Congress Hall, South Boston, on the afternoon and evening of June 9. The several divisions in the peninsula district are co-operating for this monster occasion.

Thomas Walsh, the attorney, always a favorite at Hibernian meetings, made his best hit last week when addressing the ladies at the meeting of Division 3. They were kept laughing from the beginning to the end, yet he offered some very timely suggestions.

An exchange asks why it is that the members of the A. O. H. are not showing more interest in the success of the Ladies' Auxiliary? Why don't they try to get their wives, daughters and sisters to join? If the matter was investigated it would be found that a large number of the members of the auxiliary are those who have no male relatives in the ranks of the A. O. H. On the other hand many ladies have been instrumental in having their male relatives become members of the A. O. H. Why can not the share in aiding the auxiliary to succeed? It is noticeable that when a division is holding a fair or an entertainment they want the ladies' assistance to make the event a success. Such being the case what kind of men are Hibernians who will not assist in the success of the auxiliary? Show us where there is a flourishing auxiliary and there you will find a successful division, if governed by the proper spirit of Hibernianism—unity, friendship and true Christian charity.

COUNTY BOARD.

Meets and Selects Day For Hibernian Annual Outing.

The County Board met Wednesday night at the hall of Division 4, and after much deliberation decided in favor of a semi-field day and picnic for the Ancient Order of Hibernians on Saturday, July 20, at which there would be an old-fashioned programme of Irish music and field sports. The committee in charge is Messrs. Joe Lenihan, Peter Cusick, Joseph Lynch and D. J. Coleman. The outing will be held at Summers' Park at the end of the Fourth-street car line, and a speaker of prominence will be secured for the occasion.
Features will be a ball game and a tug of war. The committee will visit all the divisions as soon as possible and enlist their assistance. As the proceeds will go to the fund for entertaining the State convention that meets in this city next year, the committee will try and make the celebration the largest and most successful in the history of the order.
John A. Murphy tendered his resignation as County President, his business necessitating his absence from the city a great part of the time, but at the request of all present he was induced to withdraw it for the present.

The reports of the various Secretaries showed the divisions in the city to be flourishing, and because of the many candidates awaiting the degrees it was determined to soon hold another initiation, the date to be set by the degree team. The board adjourned to meet next with Division 3 on June 6.

CHANCE FOR CHARITY.

Catholics May Aid Woman's Club and St. Anthony's Hospital.

The Catholic women of the city are offered an excellent opportunity to assist the building fund of the Catholic Woman's Club and St. Anthony's Hospital. These two have secured three days, June 3, 4, and 5, for a coffee at ten cents a plate, and besides this generous and free offer Mrs. Haffner, who is giving free lessons in baking at the New York Store, purposes to pay for all orders taken and also to donate $50 in gold to the church or society securing the largest number of orders. Mrs. Haffner has a national reputation and invites the Catholic ladies of Louisville and vicinity to visit her any afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Sixth floor of the New York Store, where she will remain until June 5. The friends of the Woman's Club and St.
Anthony's Hospital are urged to take this matter in hand at once as they may thus be placed so they can quickly earn a handsome sum of money for both institutions. Every day there will be free lessons in baking and preparing fine salads, etc., and we are asked to say that all who call will be welcome.

Bishop Horstmann Speaks
Plain to Cleveland Builders' Exchange.

Bishop Horstmann, who has frequently shown himself the ardent friend of labor, in a notable address before the Cleveland Builders' Exchange, had this to say of Roek-teller and his kind:

"The system that squeezes immense profits from the blood of labor is wrong. The condition which forces a man to accept nine dollars a week on which to rear and educate a family—aye, and to accept the chances of accident with that pittance—cries to heaven for vengeance.
And if employers, responsible for such things, expect any happiness other than what they can get on earth, I am afraid they will be disappointed." The bishop declared that we are standing on the edge of a volcano, and "that we may see the day when it will break forth, and the working men, long deprived of their rights, may rise as they have

"Employers and employees must come back to a recognition of the principle of the brotherhood of man," said the Bishop. "The principle of the golden rule is the only hope of society. The two classes have drifted far apart. The employer does not know his men. He does not care to."
The Bishop spoke of the evolution in industrial methods, which have made workmen little more than animated machines. Unionism, he said, could not be put down, and he declared it would be a misfortune if it would be.
He endorsed the right of men to organize under the banner of trade unionism, which should be under the control of good men. The address of the Bishop was followed with marked attention, and at its conclusion his hearers expressed their appreciation of it.

Hibernian Ladies' Auxiliary met Monday night at the residence of Mrs. Daniel Dougherty, on West Market street, and audited the books of the organization, which were of the evening the committee was entertained by Mrs. Dougherty with a Dutch luncheon that was charm-

Santo Members Making Preparations For Coming Grand Council.

Santo Council, Y. M. I., held a very satisfactory meeting last week, receiving one application and electing one candidate. The Central Committee to handle the Grand Council was appointed, and is composed of Messrs. Fred W. Arnold, Charles Dorn, A. R. Oberst, Charles Harbour and August Graf, delegates to past councils. This committee will appoint as many sub-committees as needed to handle the details of the convention work. They have the entertainment outlined and will make the stay of the Grand officers and delegates something to be remembered as long as they live.

Santo will formally open their new quarters with a reception, programme by the Ladies' Auxiliary and a dance on Wednesday evening, May 20. The Y. M. I. will have a home second to no organization in Owensboro excepting the Elks' new club house, and in a few years will have a home that will surpass even that. A winning ball team, a successful auxiliary and a constantly increasing membership are all helping to push No. 214 forward. It is a bustling organization, as the Grand Council will find when they become its guests this summer.

HONORS FOR PRIEST.

Baccalaureate Sermon at Rockport Delivered by Father Jockum.

Last Sunday evening the Rev.
Father William A. Jockum, pastor of St. Bernard's church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the High School and the pupils of Rockport, Ind., being the first priest to be thus honored in that State. It being unusual to invite Catholic priests to deliver sermons on occasions of this kind, the honor is also marked from the fact that there is but one Catholic in the class, Miss Jennie Zita Sullivan, but the other members all cast their votes for her candidate. Father Jockum is one of the most popular as well as one of the most learned men in this prosperous little city and his address was much appreciated by Catholics and non-Catholics.
Tomorrow evening the commencement exercises will be held in the Armory Hall, to which we have received an invitation but regret inability to be present. Miss Sullivan, who is one of the brightest members of her class, will have for her subject
"The Dignity of Labor," which will be well cared for in her hands.

JAMES C. ROACH

Writes New Irish Drama With Neither Red Coats Nor Burlesque.

One of the most interesting evolutions of the revival movement among the children of the Gael all over the world is the completion of an Irish drama by James Connor Roach. Mr.
Roach in his new play, "The O'Gorman," has very little use for old-time material, but nevertheless has evolved a play that is Irish in every line of it; that bristles with epigrams and abounds in a crop of wit and humor fragrant as the heather of Magliuddy's Reeks in Kerry, where the stirring scenes of the play are laid.

There are no redcoats in sight at any time throughout the four acts of "The O'Gorman," but there are the soldiers would be highly gratifying to some of the principals in the play. There are no rags. There are no blithering "funny" men. There are no drinking, drooling hags. There is no informer.

Mr. Roach starred for years in Irish productions and wrote several of his own plays, the last of which was "Rory of the Hills," that netted nearly $200,000 during its career on the road. He is a constant and welcome contributor to Irish periodicals.
